Share your own perspectives of this year's EUSA Championships and sporting events. Today we are particularly concerned with creating positive results through youth sport experiences. Youth sports play an important role in the development of a new and more talented generation.

The spirit of cheerfulness, enthusiasm, leadership and social responsibility are key themes.

We invite you to send us your top photos, depicting sport at its best:

- The fun of competition
- Health advantages of sports
- Greater sense of moral values
- New friendships
- Amazing experiences

Each participant may submit up to three photos. The shots should be sent to stc@eusa.eu by October 15, 2010.

We will not accept any images depicting drugs, alcohol, sexually suggestive content or violence. Participants agree to waive the copyrights for the photos submitted and that the photos are not edited. We kindly ask to send only the best resolution files you can provide (not greater than 6Mb per one photo).

All students, athletes, or persons associated with EUSA Championships may take part in the Photo Competition. The winner will be awarded with participation in the General Assembly 2011 in Eilat, Israel.

We are looking forward to receive your photographic masterpieces. For more information, please see <http://stc.eusa.eu>
