Season's Greetings

On behalf of the European University Sports Association, we are sending you very warm and sincere wishes for Christmas and New Year 2011.

We would like to thank all our member associations, universities, EUSA events organisers, students, volunteers, sponsors and other partners & friends for their active role in development and growth of the University sport in 2010.

A special thanks and recognition goes to all individuals working hard in various committees and bodies within our organisation. We look forward to continuing and strengthening our cooperation with all the friends & partners in 2011 as well.

May you be healthy, active and true to yourself and your friends also in 2011!
